TWO PASSENGERS WERE HURT.

Frightened by the Burning of a Car Motor.

The burning out of a motor on a Jefferson avenue car last night caused much alarm among the passengers, and resulted in injury to two persons, who jumped from the car.

Miss Annie Renner of No. 2017 Congress street sustained several scalp wounds. She was taken to the Bethesda Home, where Dr. Fichtelmann, and pronounced not serious.

Fred Getz, 33 years old, of No. 2854 South Jefferson avenue sustained a fracture of the ankle. He was taken to his home by his brother.

The accident occurred at 7:30 o'clock, while returning from a party given by the Gravois avenue and Lynch street. When the motor burned out there was a loud report accompanied by a flash of fire. The passengers were frightened, and there was a scramble to get off the car. Men and women struggled to escape, and half a dozen passengers jumped before the car stopped.

Miss Renner was the first one to alight and she fell on the pavement. She was in a semiconscious condition when picked up by her brother, but soon revived. Getz tumbled on the pavement as he jumped off the car. Other passengers were thrown to the street, but escaped injury.

The car was in charge of Motorman N. M. Phelps. Frank Deman was the motorman.

Mrs. J. H. Kienelshmidt of No. 2019A Grand avenue was knocked down by a street car of the Transit Company yesterday morning. She sustained several scalp wounds, which she refused to have dressed by a physician.

ST. ANN'S WARDS REMOVED.

Foundlings in Private Families Called in by Mayor's Order.

As a result of Mayor Wells's order to transfer children from St. Ann's to the Children's Home, the children of the St. Ann's were called in yesterday morning. The children of the former institution, from private homes, who had been called in for the purpose of being placed in the St. Ann's, were called in for the purpose of being placed in the Children's Home.

Mayor Wells's private secretary, J. G. McCone, reported that St. Ann's Asylum cannot accommodate the children sent there by the city, and the Mayor has ordered the plan followed by the officers of St. Ann's in placing their wards about in private families.

Sister Francis, who is in charge of St. Ann's Asylum, stated yesterday that owing to the crowded conditions of the institution she had found it necessary to place those of her wards which are under the age of 13 months in the Children's Home, and the remainder of the children in private families.

YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

TO-DAY'S SCHEDULE.

The soaring tendencies of Joyce O'Neill made trouble for the Cardinals yesterday and just when the game seemed all won by those hitless Giants developed feehish energy with the stick and quickly reversed the situation.

Christie Mathewson, no longer a "phenom," deserves no credit for the victory, as six runs were gathered in the first two innings. But in the seventh inning O'Neill suddenly gravitated skyward and when he picked himself out of the wreck of his air-sickness, a few moments later, the Cardinals were three runs to the good, with good prospects for more. Then for the third time Bob Wicker faced Joyce O'Neill, and the slaughter went on just the same.

At the close of the second inning Mathewson had pitched 10 balls, and had allowed two runs, three hits and two errors. The Cardinals were three runs to the good, with good prospects for more. Then for the third time Bob Wicker faced Joyce O'Neill, and the slaughter went on just the same.

New York 7, Time of game—One hour and forty minutes. Umpire—Cantillon.

CARDINALS REST TO-DAY.

Donovan and Kruger on Hospital List—Brooklyn To-Morrow.

Two hours practice in the morning will constitute today's work for the Cardinals, and with Donovan and Kruger on the injured list, the day of rest will be appreciated. A few days of rest will be appreciated. A few days of rest will be appreciated.

New York moves on to Cincinnati, and the opening game of the series to-morrow will be made a festive event, as the Palace at Cincinnati is the new and costly Cincinnati grand stand is called, will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. President Johnson has sent a letter of appreciation of the opening of other cities. They consist of sterling silver plates encased in embossed leather, being inscribed with the guest's name and the announcement in raised letters.

It is almost too much to hope for, but Uncle Nick Ryan will confer a great favor on the Cardinals and the St. Louis club if he will send somebody to replace Emile Joe Cantillon. That official is about the worst umpire in the league, and his work is an indicator. His work here in the first game with Pittsburgh was not bad, but in the second game he started off with a bunch of rotten decisions, and grew worse every day. O'Day would be greeted with open arms after such a hurly-burly.

While none of his rulings yesterday directly affected the score, Cantillon did the front with a bunch of decisions that needed deodorizing. He was at his best—or worst—when he ruled that the ball was out of play. As he started to run the ball, he ruled that the ball was out of play. POWER PRESENTS GAME TO CHICAGO

Takes the Airship Route Early in Game and White Sox Gain Commanding Lead.

MALONEY PLAYS RIGHT FIELD.

Probably Will Be Retained in That Position—Reidy Takes Power's Place, but Is Hit Hard.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Ill., May 14.—Jack Powell took the airship route early to-day and before he was rescued by Reidy the White Stockings had clinched the game. Their unusual stick work so encouraged the Chicagoans that they refused to be stayed and kept up a more or less violent assault on everything that the man from Milwaukee had to offer.

That it was not St. Louis's day to win was shown early. The final score was 12 to 2 in favor of the home team.

It rained runs for Chicago in the first two innings. Powell gave five bases on balls, hit George S. Yonkers for the rise and forced two men across the plate.

Reidy took Powell's place in the third inning, but could not quite stop the avalanche which the White Sox started. Six hits were allowed by him in the remaining six innings. With two men on bases in the third, Green rapped out a triple and four hits gave three runs in the fifth. In the eighth Jones batted a bunt and scored on successive errors.

Callahan was steady in all but the third inning. Then Burkett and Powell gathered together and pushed two runs across the plate.

Powell's accession was a great disappointment to McAleer, as he had set his heart on capturing the position. The second inning was the scene of greatest disturbance. McAleer struck a base and an error when Suggs dropped the ball.

McFarland stayed at second, Strang walked, and walked. Powell struck a base and an error when Suggs dropped the ball.

Isbell hit to McCormick and Green. Caught at the plate, Dalrymple doubled and two men crossed. Dalrymple was tagging at the plate. Maloney played a game in the right field and played a game in the right field.

Jones didn't jump back to the Chicago National League team, because he wanted particularly to do what was "right."
